- Courtesy New York State Museum, Albany, NY.
- We ask that you comply with these guidelines:
  - Published Materials: the credit line should appear on the same or facing page as the image or on a separate photo credits page. Each individual image must be credited properly.
  - Films, Filmstrips, and Video Presentations: include the credit within the "Sources for illustrations/Images" or "Credits" section of the production.
  - Exhibitions: the credit should appear in the exhibition area, preferably directly below or adjacent to the image.
  - Web use: the credit should appear either adjacent to the image or in a "Sources of Illustrations/Images" section.

Caption Guidelines: The purchaser is required to use the caption information provided on the Rights and Reproduction Agreement. If applicable, additional credit must be given as instructed. Requests for any changes in wording must be submitted in writing to the New York State Museum for final review and approval.

Permission: The New York State Museum grants permission for one-time, non-exclusive use in one publication with U.S., Canadian, and World Rights only for the purpose applied for in writing by the purchaser on the Rights and Reproduction Agreement. Reprints and new editions require new application for use. In authorizing the publication of an image, the New York State Museum does not surrender its own right, title ownership or right to publish or to grant permission to others to do so.

Rights of Refusal: The museum reserves the right to decline to provide images to applicants who have not complied with its policies or whose products are unacceptable to the museum for any reason.

Alteration: Images supplied may not be cropped, distorted, superimposed on any other image, or shown in detail, without written permission from the New York State Museum.

Proofs: The New York State Museum reserves the right to examine proofs and captions prior to final publication approval.

Digital Media: Permission for electronic publication (CD-ROM, web pages, on-line databases, etc.) will only be granted for publication in a format that is secured to prevent unauthorized downloading, copying, and/or manipulation of content.

Gratis Copy: The publisher or purchaser shall furnish, without charge, to the New York State Museum two copies of the publication in which the image appears. An electronic copy of a pdf is acceptable for journal articles.

Disclaimer: The New York State Museum assumes no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of the image. Responsibility for obtaining any third party permission, if necessary, rests solely with the user.

The purchaser's signature, receipt of payment, or reproduction of the image shall constitute proof of purchaser's agreement to all conditions stated herein.

NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS: The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
