Hey, Kiara?
Yes?

I don't get it!
Why are you guys marching for women's rights?
Women can vote.

They can run for president now.
I mean, what's left to march about?

Women are still underrepresented in government.
We still only make 78 cents for every dollar a man makes.

Women are still significantly more likely to face domestic violence.
Our wages are disproportionately forced to give up their careers for their families.

Do you wanna make a sign, too?

There will be many important people in attendance.

There'll be discussing radical topics. Women's civil rights, religious rights, social rights.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton
Lucretia Mott
Frederick Douglass

I can't even describe such excitement in our town!
I understand your excitement, Hannah, but you must remember to be on your best behavior.
It's amazing!

Three years ago, a terrible fire swept through the factory where my mother worked. She escaped the blaze, but many of her friends did not.

I want to be a part of it too!

What do you think of my sign?

Do you think Mama will like it?

I've never been here before.

I'm not wanting woman to suffer.

We won't help the workers.

We can't sue. We can't.

Mr. Voter

I almost lost your mother once.

I'm sleepy at night if you two would forget this suffrage business and stay home.

We'll go to workshops.

Meeting famous people!

We're going to listen to speakers and learn about the equal rights amendment.

My aunt and my mom and I are here for the New York State Women's meeting.

We took the bus from New York City.

Ladies, we'll be arriving in Albany in 5 minutes!
